

During This Event, You Will Learn

New York Cancer & Blood Specialists

Community Oncology Alliance
& Patient & Family Advisory Council

Your Voice Matters.

As we continue to live our mission, New York Cancer & Blood Specialists want you, our patients, to know your voices are heard and truly matter to us.

As a proud part of Community Oncology, we are dedicated to providing world-class cancer care close to home. Through our Patient & Family Council, we are committed to sharing organizational improvements, updates, and the impact of our work and we thank you for trusting us with your care.

Your patient experience is important to us. As a leading independent oncology practice, we invite you to be part of our journey and help shape the future of community oncology.

- What Community Oncology is and the role of CPAN
- How New York Cancer & Blood Specialists strive to stay at the forefront of your care - at both the national and state level.
- What it means to be a PFAC (Patient & Family Advisory Council) member
- Our Mission: To enhance the delivery of patient- and family-centered care through collaboration between patients, families, staff, physicians, and administrators — because your opinion matters to us.
- Meet amazing colleagues from across our organization

Date: March 24th, 2026

Time: 2-3 PM

Location:

1 Research Road, Ridge,
New York, NY 11961

A virtual meeting link will also be available for those who would like to attend remotely.

For questions or concerns, please contact:

Angelina Lorello

Email: Alorello@nycancer.com

Phone: (631) 775-1656